

Press release

For the Pharmaceutical Industry:

Quality + Service + Competence = LINHARDT

Our strategic focus is the pharmaceutical industry as it has been for decades. Therefore, LINHARDT is Europe's biggest producer of pharmaceutical aluminum tubes.

Every day we are demonstrating our competence, especially for the production of specialties like small diameter tubes, nozzles, cannulas and the full service coordination of your supply of sterilized tubes.

LINHARDT is known as the industry benchmark. We produce Quality. And this we do perfectly. Various certificates and a magnitude of outstanding feedback from customers support this fact. LINHARDT also produces pharmaceutical tubes for the Japanese market, meeting its extremely challenging requirements.

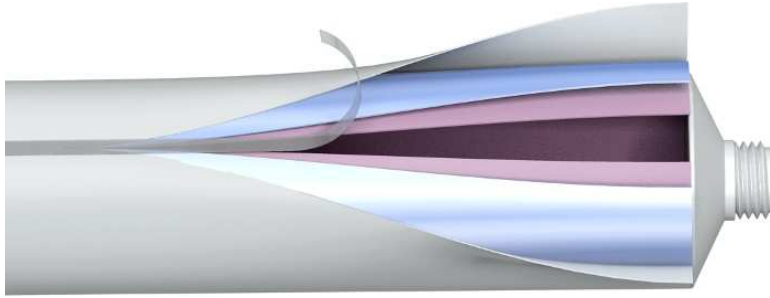

LINHARDT employees are well trained and highly committed. Therefore, LINHARDT is efficient. And LINHARDT is flexible.

Our distinct commitment to service is your additional advantage.
